Moore's Lodge

Resort History

We are honored to be the stewards of this land originally awarded to Kah Skip O Gah Bow of the Chippewa (Ojibwe) tribe by the land Act of 1889. In 1927, his descendants sold the land to Thomas and Emogene Seevers, founding Seever's Resort. In 1936, Alfred and Pauline Richter renamed it Lincolnwood Resort. Shell and Tillie Moore gave us our name in 1941. Since then, Moore's Lodge has been owned by Walt and Gloria Reed (1964), jointly by Jim and Barb Woods and Dale and Shirley Canfield (1973) and most recently (1984) became one of the first "resortminiums" in Minnesota, presently with 16 shareholders who welcome you to enjoy our special place.

18 Cozy Cabins

Our charming collection boasts 1, 2, 3, and 4 bedroom gems, each with its own quirky personality and a sweet spot on the property.

Not every cabin dances by the lake, but all have beautiful water views. Except Cabin 20, the introvert, which offers a rustic charm and a secret woodland feel.
